ADMINISTRATIVE CLERK II

FINAL FILING DATE

Monday, September 30, 2019

SALARY RANGE

$1,172.00 to $1,424.58
(Bi-Weekly, D.O.Q.)

NATURE OF THE POSITION:

Under supervision of the assigned program manager, performs work of moderate to high difficulty in filing, general office clerical, administrative work; computer input, and maintenance of tenant and statistical records. Duties performed are similar to those of the Administrative Clerk I position, but the Administrative Clerk II is routinely assigned more complex technical projects and duties which require a higher level of administrative, clerical skills, and staff-support functions. Performs other duties of an administrative nature.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES:

Employees in this classification perform general office work including but not limited to composition and transcription of letters, memoranda and other material; maintains departmental and/or program files and other records; prepares reports of complex data; maintains a system for departmental inventory; develops and produces forms and general communications; inputs data into the Agency computer program and generates reports as required. Must have basic proficiency in word processing, spreadsheet and desktop publishing software. Assists other staff as directed, performing other administrative tasks of a skilled nature. Must be able to work cordially and tactfully with the public and others regularly encountered in the course of employment; have a neat personal appearance, maintain regular attendance, and exercise good judgment in accordance with Housing Authority policies and procedures. Must be able to correctly and safely operate various types of office equipment. Must demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing, and perform complex arithmetical computations rapidly and accurately. Must be able to work independently and demonstrate appropriate problem-solving skills. For a detailed summary of job duties assigned to this classification, please refer to the attached job description.

To be considered, applicants must possess the knowledge, skills and abilities listed on the job description. However, possession of these requirements does not assure an applicant a finalist position. Finalists will be determined by the selection process as described in this announcement.

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

In addition to the stated knowledge, skills and abilities of the employment standards, applicants are required to have at least a high school-level education, a GED certificate, or other certification of satisfactory completion from a technical or vocational school in any area related to general office or clerical proficiency. In addition, must have at least two (2) years of practical experience in a standard office environment primarily performing the listed essential functions of the position, OR one (1) year as an Administrative Clerk 1 for a Housing Authority. 24 or more semester college units from an accredited college will qualify as equivalent for up to one (1) year of the two-year experience requirement. In all situations, candidates must demonstrate some current or previous practical experience in a general clerical/administrative function. It is mandatory to possess a valid California Driver's license and must present a DMV printout if required by the employer for verification. Applicant must also meet insurability requirements. Must also be able to demonstrate the ability to type at least 30 words per minute at 95% or above accuracy. Must meet other qualifications regarding physical ability to perform the essential job functions with or without reasonable accommodation, and meet requirements for lawful employment.

The ideal candidate would satisfy the following criteria: have current or recent experience in a general clerical or administrative function with a working knowledge of the methods, practices and terminology used therein. Should have intermediate to expert-level computer skills, including ability to utilize word processing, basic spreadsheet and desktop publishing software programs preferably in a Windows 2010 environment. The candidate should also have experience in a multi-person office, with established customer-service skills involving walk-in clients and telephone demeanor, as well as the ability to safely and correctly operate various types of office equipment. Have an aptitude for dealing with people, and exhibit the following qualities of orderliness, a neat personal appearance and the ability to get along well with others. Demonstrate the ability to develop complex projects, and provide support services to other staff. Should also demonstrate good time-management skills and the ability to work with minimum supervision, and meet all other qualification criteria.

Helpful to be bilingual in either English/Spanish or English/Hmong-Laoatian.

Administrative Clerk 2 position, Continued:

SELECTION PROCESS:

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on the closing date listed on this flyer. Resumes submitted without, or in lieu of an agency application will not be accepted. All applications will be reviewed for completeness and satisfaction of minimum qualifications. Those applicants who possess the knowledge, skills and abilities outlined in the job description will be invited to participate in a competitive written exercise pertinent to the regular functions and tasks of this classification. Following this exercise, a list of eligible finalists will be developed for further evaluation. From this review, a limited number of candidates who demonstrate the best combination of qualifications for the position will be invited to take a typing proficiency test. From those who meet or exceed the job typing standard, a final review considering all previous evaluatory factors will determine the finalists who will be invited to appear before an oral interview panel to explore and evaluate the extent of their knowledge, work experience, education and personal characteristics matching those that are needed for this position. Final selection of a qualified candidate shall be from among those appearing before the appraisal panel. Barring undue hardship, reasonable accommodations can be made in the examination process for disabled individuals or for religious reasons. Requests for accommodation should be made at least 24 hours in advance to the Human Resources Department. The above selection process is usually assigned to this job classification. However, the Housing Authority reserves the right to modify any or all aspects of the selection process previously listed based on the level of applicant responses, and any extenuating circumstances incumbent upon a specific recruitment.

The Housing Authority shall use the “rule of list” for this recruitment in certifying finalists for hiring. The “rule of list” means there is no specified number of candidates are interviewed for each position which comes available. An eligible list containing the names of the most qualified applicants will be compiled based on the overall scores from all components of the evaluation process. Eligibility lists remain in effect for up to one year from the date of closing, but may be declared “exhausted” in accordance with current Housing Authority policy. An appointment to an open position can be made from any of the finalists participating in the interview process, and the remaining qualified finalists are returned to the eligible hire list to be considered for the next vacancy within this classification.

ESSENTIAL PHYSICAL FUNCTIONS

Essential functions of this position may require a range of physical mobility, such as bending, stooping, lifting, (usually 25 lbs. or less), turning, carrying objects, grasping, and safely negotiating within worksite or designated pedestrian areas. Requires a normal level of visual and auditory acuity, including the ability to effectively communicate interpersonally. Also requires ability to operate a motor vehicle, as well as remaining in a sitting position for extended periods of time, and a high level of manipulative dexterity to operate required office equipment, including those with a keyboard. Qualified disabled persons must be able to perform the essential functions of the classification with or without reasonable accommodations.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

To apply for this position, you may obtain an application packet from the Housing Authority of The County of Merced during regular daily business hours: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays and posted Friday closures, at the Central Office, 405 'U' Street, Merced, California, 95340 or online at www.merced-pha.com. Resumes must be submitted with an agency application to be considered. All applications should be returned to the above address, to the attention of the Human Resources Manager. Incomplete applications or applications received after date and time of closure, will not be considered. For additional information, call (209) 722-3501, extension #139.

A final offer of employment is conditional upon your demonstration of a drug-free status through laboratory certification. Federal law also requires that prior to employment, you must furnish proof of your identity and eligibility for employment in the United States.

INQUIRIES REGARDING YOUR APPLICATION STATUS

Applicants for positions with the Housing Authority of the County of Merced will be notified regarding their applicant status. Generally speaking, we feel it is both prudent and professional to make such notifications only in writing.

Therefore, the Housing Authority will not respond to telephone requests for an application status. As much of the information on your application is of a confidential nature, it is not feasible for us to request adequate verification of the caller's identity prior to discussing any personal information.

You should receive some written communication regarding the status of your application within 3-4 weeks of the closing date of recruitment. We ask for your patience and cooperation in this matter.

NOTICE OF REQUIRED DRUG TESTING

Pursuant to the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, the Housing Authority of the County of Merced is required to certify its compliance in providing a drug-free workplace that is free from the illegal manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, sale and use of illegal drugs, and the use, possession or distribution of alcohol. All applicants who are extended a Conditional Offer Of Employment, shall as part of their pre-employment physical, voluntarily submit to blood and/or urine testing for the presence of alcohol or illegal drugs. Refusal to submit to the required drug testing or any other component of the pre-employment physical examination will result in withdrawal of the employment offer.

Applicants with a confirmed positive test result will be denied employment. The Housing Authority will not discriminate against applicants for employment because of a past history of drug abuse. Therefore, individuals who have failed a pre-employment drug test may re-apply for employment with the Housing Authority for any subsequent public recruitment for which they are qualified, after a period of no less than six (6) months. If they achieve the status of a successful candidate for a subsequent recruitment, they must present themselves as drug-free at that time.

Applicants for employment who are public housing residents or Section 8 participants should be advised that in the course of a pre-employment physical, a positive test result indicating illegal drug use, in addition to denial of employment, may also cause eviction and/or termination from public housing programs.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

Regarding Employment Background Inquiries

California Civil Code Section 47 as amended on January 1, 1995, extends the protection concerning privileged communications to employment references. Its primary purpose is to encourage previous employees to openly and fairly respond to questions from the Housing Authority concerning your past employment situations.

These inquiries are intended to verify the information which you have provided on your application and to furnish the Housing Authority other pertinent information relevant to your job qualifications and employment experience. Information received from these inquiries will remain STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL. Background verifications may be conducted either directly by the Housing Authority or through a third-party investigative consumer reporting agency. Disclosure of information which is received through the background verification process may be disclosed to you in accordance with current California Civil Code Sections 1785 and 1786. In the event that the information received qualifies for disclosure, you may receive a summary of the information reported to the Housing Authority, although the source of the information may be confidential.

Only finalists for this position will be required to sign an information release allowing the Housing Authority to make these inquiries as part of a background investigation. Finalists will be ranked according to oral appraisal, written examination and any other required skills testing scores as stated in the job announcement. A final, conditional offer of employment will be tendered to the successful candidate after consideration and review of all relevant factors.

LIST OF EMPLOYMENT REFERENCES

As noted in this job announcement packet, this recruitment process includes a background check of all applicants for employment with the Housing Authority. While we normally utilize the employer information contained in the “Employment Experience” section of the application, many times this information is not current or sufficient for us to make a reasonable inquiry.

As our decision regarding an applicant’s status cannot be completed without sufficient investigation, please provide the following references in addition to any you have listed within the “Employment Experience” section of the application. Failure to fill out either the Employment Experience section of the application, or this form, will result in your application being declared “Incomplete.” References listed on this form can be persons who have worked with you, in recent past or current employment situations. They should be persons for whom you can provide a current mailing address and/or phone number to enable us to contact them in a timely manner.

Prior to furnishing their personal information to the Housing Authority, you should contact your references and advise them of your intent to include them as a background resource. Both yourself and your references should understand that failure to respond to a background inquiry within a specified timeframe may compromise your ability to be considered as a finalist for the position. Information provided by your references will be maintained as confidential to the full extent allowed by law, and the Housing Authority may advise you regarding the results of the background disclosures.

Please fill out the back side of this form, and return it to the Housing Authority along with your employment application; supplemental application; applicant characteristic survey (optional), your resume, and any other pertinent documents. Please be advised that you should only attach copies of important personal documents rather than originals, as we cannot be responsible for insuring their safe and prompt return.
